

SUBMARINE PASSES OUT OF THE CAPES

Deutschland Apparently Unobserved By Allied
Warship Patrol

DASHES THRU LOWER BAY

Two Accompanying Boats Know
Only That She Disappeared
from View Unharmd

SEEMINGLY HAD CLEAR FIELD

NORFOLK, Va., Aug. 2.—The German submarine merchantman Deutschland, passed quietly out of the Virginia Capes at 8:30 o'clock tonight on her homeward voyage, apparently unobserved by the allied warship patrol waiting outside the three mile limit. She was accompanied to the cape only by the tug Thomas F. Timmins, which had conveyed her down the bay from Baltimore and by a newspaper despatch boat.

Her departure to sea followed an eighteen mile dash thru the lower Chesapeake bay.

After proceeding slowly most of the way down, she increased her power at 6:30 and reached the capes just after dusk. None of the allied cruisers were visible as she passed thru.

Seemingly Had Clear Field
Whether she submerged before reaching the three mile limit is unknown. The two accompanying boats only know that she disappeared unharmd and to all appearances, she had a clear field ahead to a point where she could submerge in safety.

Half an hour after the last light of the Deutschland had disappeared the Timmins, seemingly satisfied with her work, turned back and headed up Chesapeake Bay in the direction of Baltimore.

During part of the day he Deutschland had remained hidden at a cove up Chesapeake Bay.

For several before the beginning of her final dash she lay in a secluded retreat near Tangier Island, about fifty miles above Cape Henry. The steamer Sumerset and the buoy tender Ivy reported during the early afternoon that they had passed her at that point. The press boat then took a position near the dividing point of the Old Point and Cape Henry channels and awaited the coming of the undersea vessel. Shortly before six o'clock the first sight of the craft was obtained. Apparently she was about five miles away and was low in the water, only her conning tower showing. The Timmins was a short distance behind and they were traveling about seven miles an hour. When near the entrance to Mobjack Bay, the Deutschland sighted the press boat and immediately reversed herself and appeared to be making for the bay.

After running for about two miles, she again headed south until she was abreast the Timmins and then both vessels put on full speed ahead toward the press boat. Suddenly they turned off as to go down the Old Point Channel, but when the respatch boat made for the same channel, they changed their course and headed directly for Cape Henry.

Carried False Superstructure
As the Deutschland approached it was apparent she was carrying false superstructure, slightly lower than her conning tower. It was straw colored and blended with the oil skin coats worn by her crew who crowded the deck. When about a mile from the press boat the submersible began to clear away the false superstructure and take soundings as if preparing to dive.

Just as the superstructure was cleared the Timmins moved ahead of the undersea liner and signalled that the boats intended to pass to the starboard side. Immediately both vessels increased their speed and put over to the starboard. As the Timmins came alongside the press boat at a distance of perhaps 100 feet and with the Deutschland moving slowly close to her starboard side, Captain Hirsch of the German war-buoy steamer Neckar, who had charge of the clearing of the Deutschland shouted thru a megaphone, "who is that?"

Upon being advised that it was a newspaper boat, he shouted this information to the Deutschland and then both vessels put on speed, moving ahead rapidly. The Deutschland was displaying red and green lights set flush on the two sides of her conning tower. As she passed the newspaper boat she put out these two lights.

The Timmins then moved over to the port side of the channel about 150 feet from the Deutschland and they continued in these positions for a considerable distance down the bay.

By this time the sun was setting over the water in which the Deutschland stood out clearly. Within a

RAILROADS WILL FIGHT ACTION OF 'ERSEY CITY COMMISSIONERS

Report is That Roads Will Apply to Federal Courts to Restrain Commission From Carrying Out Order.

New York, Aug. 2.—After a conference of railroad officials today, it was reported that they would fight the resolution adopted by the board of commissioners of Jersey City designed to prevent a recurrence of the Black Tom Island explosion by prohibiting shipment or storage of high explosives within the city limits. The report was that the railroads would apply to federal courts for an injunction restraining the city commissioners from carrying out their order. It was reported today that fire in the warehouses was spreading to two freight cars loaded with high explosives and shrapnel. The cars had been buried under debris.

Acting Fire Chief William Kern made an inspection and reported that the blaze, while serious, was under control of his firemen.

Shrapnel shells in the debris were exploded by the intense heat in such numbers that more than fifty laborers working near the fire were ordered away and a "dead line" was established.

TENTH U. S. CAVALRY OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY

HOLDS PAGEANT AT AMERICAN
HEADQUARTERS IN MEXICO

Fiftieth Anniversary Celebration is Conceived by Lieut. Col. Charles Young Who Has Reached the Highest Rank in the Army Ever Attained by a Negro.

Headquarters American Punitive Expedition in Mexico, July 30th—by motor truck to Columbus, N. M., Aug. 2.—The Tenth United States cavalry today celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of its formation with a pageant here. This fighting unit, commissioned at what is now Fort Sill, Okla., July 28th, 1865 during most of its life has seen service west of the Mississippi but in addition to winning laurels in wars against Indians, it has distinguished itself at Santiago, Cuba, in the Philippines and most recently in Mexico, notably at Carizal.

The anniversary celebration was conceived by Lieutenant Colonel Charles Young of the Tenth, a West Point graduate, who has reached the highest rank in the regular army ever attained by a negro.

Introducing the different episodes of the pageants, which depicted the history of the regiment, a non-commissioned officer, clad in heraldic trappings, recited stanzas of blank verse, composed by Colonel Young which gave a synopsis of the scenes presented. The opening stanza for "The Rooky Roll Call" follows: "Come ye!"

"Come ye and behold how from beginnings small and troubles numberless full fifty ears ago was born this military child; from cabin home and plantation soil.

"From sons of slaves—men whose faces are black."

The first two episodes of pageant contrasted the men as they appeared and drilled fifty years ago and as they perform today.

The third, in which fifty troopers, appraised as Indians appeared illustrated a brilliant feat by an officer of the Tenth.

Lieutenant Powhattan Clark, returned under fire during a fight with Indians to rescue a wounded trooper.

Wanton, of the machine gun troop one of the four medal of honor men of the regimental rolls, was the central figure in the fourth episode. He was escorted across the field of honor by a guard bearing wreaths on their sabre points.

The fifth illustrated the part the Tenth took in the battle of Santiago, Cuba.

The sixth was presented by "A" troop which carried banners bearing the names of the battles in which the regiment has fought and those of its commanders who received a general's star.

At the close of the celebration the call to colors was sounded and regimental spirit reached a climax in a great burst of cheering, ending with the singing of "Glory, Glory Hallelujah."

OHIO PEACE MEETINGS

Berlin, Aug. 2.—via London.—Meetings of the National committee for securing an honorable peace were held in about forty of the larger cities of Germany last night but at none of the meetings did the moderates give any precise statement concerning the conditions of peace as the moderates would like to see them. Speakers dwelt on generalities, rarely going beyond the chancellor's declaration with regard to peace.

NINETY PER CENT OF JUNIOR NAVAL OFFICERS OPPOSE CHANGE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Ninety percent of the junior naval officers oppose immediate enactment of the senate amendment to the naval bill changing the method of promoting officers from seniority to selection by a commission. Lieutenant Commander Long testified today before the house conferees. He recommended that the measure be postponed for a year to allow officers to study it.

"This is being forced upon them," he said. "It was drawn in Washington while half the fleet is at sea and without giving the officers a chance to consider it. It will break the spirit of every young man in the service."

SIR ROGER CASEMENT TO BE EXECUTED THIS MORNING

British Government is Determined Not to Relieve Sir Roger

London, Aug. 2.—Sir Roger Case-ment will be executed in the Pentonville prison at 9 o'clock tomorrow for high treason. Lord Robert Cecil, minister of war trade today made known to The Associated Press that it was the British Government's determination not to relieve Sir Roger. Beyond the statement of Lord Robert, no formal announcement to the effect that the execution will be carried out tomorrow has been made public.

Officials intimated to The Associated Press however, that this is quite the usual procedure as a sentence carries with it the natural supposition of execution.

The foreign office says no communication has been received from the state department at Washington requesting a reprieve. The whole subject surrounding Sir Roger's case has been seriously considered by the cabinet and the determination to let the law take its course proved unalterable.

H. D. Ebey, acting head of the federal immigration bureau, said Mrs. Wilson was stopped at Sarnia, Ont., while on her way to visit Canadian relatives. He added that local federal officials could take no cognizance of the case and that Mrs. Wilson's redress lay in appeal to the Canadian authorities.

PROGRESSIVES TO HOLD CONFERENCE TODAY

WILL CONSIDER ADVISABILITY OF RE-ASSEMBLING CONVENTION

Parker Arrives in Indianapolis and Confers With Leaders From Other States—No Definite Plan is Agreed Upon.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 2.—Progressive leaders who disapproved of the action of the Bull Moose national committee in endorsing Charles E. Hughes for president at its meeting in Chicago June 26th, will hold a conference here tomorrow to consider advisability of reassembling the party's national convention within 30 days to nominate a candidate for president as a running mate for John M. Parker of Louisiana, nominee for vice-president.

Mr. Parker, who issued the call for the conference, arrived tonight and conferred with Progressive leaders from other states, but no definite plan has been agreed upon. A majority of party representatives who are here favor nominating a candidate for president, but admit an apparent lack of available candidates. Victor Mordock of Kansas has declined to make the race.

Bainbridge Colby of New York who made the nominating speech for Roosevelt at the Progressive national convention in Chicago is mentioned but his friends believe he will decline to run.

Another suggestion is that Parker be named for president and another candidate be selected for vice-president. A few of the Progressives from eastern states, it is said, will oppose the naming of a third ticket and will either urge the endorsement of President Wilson or adjourn without action.

Leaders who will attend the conference are a unit in protesting against the action of the Bull Moose national committee in endorsing Hughes and favor action which may perpetuate the national Progressive party.

Among the arrivals tonight were: John M. Parker of Louisiana. Judge Albert P. Norton of St. Louis.

Joseph P. Fonton of Kansas City, Progressive candidate for governor of Missouri.

L. A. Laughlin of Kansas City. A. H. Hallmann of Warrenton, Mo., Bull Moose candidate for congress in the ninth district against Speaker Champ Clark.

Henry H. Griffiths of Iowa. C. F. Hoffman of Michigan. M. R. Denman of Ohio.

J. M. McCormick of Texas. C. W. McClure of Georgia. E. R. Gunby of Florida.

Edwin M. Lee, Bull Moose state chairman of Indiana.

Thomas A. Daly, Progressive candidate for governor of Indiana.

Sarah E. Lyons of Minneapolis was the first woman Progressive to arrive for the conference.

PROTESTS LEGALITY OF RECENT ELECTION HELD IN PANAMA

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Samuel Lewis, an attorney for Dr. Chiari, unsuccessful candidate for the presidency of Panama, called at the state department today to protest the legality of the recent election, in which Ramon Valdez was chosen president. The Chiari party contend that the government prevailed by fraud and violence and want the United States to set aside the choice under terms of the treaty which this government assures the voters of Panama of fair elections.

American Minister Price at Panama and military authorities of the canal zone have also submitted reports which are said to show unfairness, but department officials are inclined to hold that the operation of the treaty is limited to adoption by the United States of precautionary measures in advance of an election, and that there is no warrant for challenging results.

BORLAND RENEWS CHARGES OF BEEF TRUST IN THE HOUSE

Missouri Member Demands Action on His Resolution Proposing an Investigation of Meat Prices.

Washington, Aug. 2.—Representative Borland of Missouri, renewed his charges of a beef trust in the house today and demanded action on his resolution proposing an investigation of meat prices by the federal trade commission. He declared packers were dividing enormous dividends while they charged the consumers war prices and had tried to stifle the proposal for an inquiry because they feared publicity.

"The packers now own or control nearly everything that is valuable in connection with the livestock business," he said. Not only are they the sole buyers for the farmers' cattle, but they also control facilities for getting those cattle on the market."

Mr. Borland declared that in "while the consumer while was paying war prices," the Swift's company's dividends amounted to 18.7 percent of its capital stock, the Armour company's 55 percent, the Morris company's 77.3 percent and the Cudahy company's 17.5 percent. At the same time, he said the meat producing industry had been managed so disadvantageously that there were only 37,000,000 head of cattle in the country last year, compared to 50,000,000 in 1900.

SEARCH FAILS TO DISCLOSE PRESENCE OF HOSTILE MEXICANS

Gen. Bell Orders Troops Sent to Finlay, Texas, to Return to Fort Bliss if No Bandits are Seen Before Today.

El Paso, Tex., Aug. 2.—Upon receipt of reports that a search of the country surrounding Finlay, Texas, had failed to disclose hostile Mexicans, General George Bell, Jr., tonight ordered the troops sent to the district to return to Fort Bliss if no bandits are seen before tomorrow.

The troops were sent in response to reports from Finlay that an outpost of the eighth Massachusetts infantry had sighted a band of Mexicans on American soil. Military authorities believe that a small party of American ranchmen were seen by the guardsmen.

Pursuit of the two fugitives of the band which engaged a joint force of Americans and Carranzistas near Fort Hancock Monday is still being maintained by Mexican troops.

Residents Return to Homes
Finlay, Texas, Aug. 2.—Residents of Finlay who early today left their homes and fled to the hills on reports that a force of 150 Mexican bandits had crossed the Rio Grande and was camped at La Grasa Pass, south of here, had all returned today.

Investigation disclosed that reports of the presence of bandits probably arose from the fact that three cattlemen leading several horses passed near a Massachusetts outpost. Believing a large party of bandits was in the vicinity the national guardsmen fired a number of shots but these took effect in clumps of mesquite swaying in the breeze.

ESTIMATE NUMBER OF DEAD IN ONTARIO FIRE SWEEP AREA AT 400

Cobalt, Ont., Aug. 2.—A conservative estimate tonight places the number of dead in the fire swept area of Northern Ontario at 400. A recrudescence of the fires and the destruction of other settlements is feared. Reports from Boston Creek state that the fire is burning on both sides of the railroad track and raging fiercely to the southwest especially between Red Water and Tomika.

Cobalt is enveloped in a pall of smoke.

ZEPPELINS DROP BOMBS ON ENGLAND

German Airships Fly Over Eastern and South-eastern Counties

CEASE VIOLENT FIGHTING

Armies of Somme, Russia and Galicia Take Breathing Spell Preparatory to Attacks

FRENCH CAPTURE TRENCHES

LONDON, Aug. 3.—German airships have again flown over eastern counties of England, dropping bombs. An official statement just issued says:

"A number of airships crossed the coast of the eastern counties shortly after midnight. Their objective has not yet been definitely ascertained as the raid is still proceeding. Some bombs were dropped at several places."

Another official communication issued this morning (Thursday) said:

"The raid appears to have been carried out by six or seven airships. A considerable number of bombs are reported to have been dropped at various places on the eastern and southeastern counties but no definite reports have been received. No military damage has yet been reported."

"Many anti-aircraft guns were in action and at least one of the airships is reported to have been hit." A Zeppelin was seen early this morning traveling seaward badly damaged, according to the Exchange Telegraph's correspondent in a southeast coast town.

Summary of Land Operations
The armies of the three great centers of recent activity—Somme, Russia and Galicia—have ceased the violent fighting in which they have been engaged and are indulging in a breathing spell preparatory to further attacks and counter-attacks. The official communications dealing with the operations Wednesday tell of no important engagement or of any notable changes in the positions of any of the belligerents.

Attacking on a three mile line from the Meuse river to Fleury north of Verdun, the French have captured several German trenches and organized points of support. In the engagement 600 Germans were made prisoners and ten machine guns were captured.

On the Russian front Petrograd reports merely artillery duels and infantry attacks by small detachments, while Berlin tells of Russian attacks on the Stokhod and Turia river fronts and of local Russian offensives on the Stripa river in Galicia all of which were repulsed.

Attacks by the Austrians against Italians at various points have been repulsed with heavy casualties according to Rome. Germans have carried out another air raid on the eastern counties of England—the third this week.

ORDER GUARDSMAN COURT MARTIALED

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 2.—Private Harry Goldberg of the Alabama National Guard was ordered court martialed today on a charge of disobeying an officer. The officers who ordered this punishment were publicly reprimanded today by Brigadier General C. R. Bricken for exceeding their authority.

Mr. Hughes and Suffrage

While Mr. Hughes' statement of his views on woman's suffrage will not be satisfactory to men and women with anti-suffrage belief the statement leaves no doubt as to the candidate's position on this question and certainly should be eminently satisfactory to suffrage advocates. Mr. Hughes' answer to Senator Sutherland's request for an expression of his views on suffrage is characteristic in that it is brief and direct, the candidate stating without equivocation just where he stands. Mr. Hughes' position is summed up in these words: "My view is that a proposed federal amendment should be submitted and ratified and the subject removed from political discussion." Certainly many voters who are opposed to suffrage in principle will agree with a portion of Mr. Hughes' sentiment and will welcome the idea that the amendment should be submitted to the people, passed upon and thus settled one way or the other and so removed from continuous discussion. There are a great many men who are very willing that people shall vote upon any given question even though they are personally opposed to the proposition.

News Print Situation Serious

As a result of the increased price of news print it is almost certain that the large metropolitan papers will increase the price of papers from 1 to 2c each. With this in view it is believed that there will come a general demand for the restoration of the 2c piece to circulation. Some years ago the government recalled all 2c pieces as they were so unwieldy in size for coin of such small value and were sometimes passed as quarters. Newsboys in the larger cities have already begun plans for circulating petitions to congress to again have the 2c piece minted.

That the paper situation is serious is indicated by the action taken in New York where a large number of the great newspaper publishers of the country joined in a written request to all newspaper publishers to reduce the size of their publications. This request is made for the common good and really as a matter of offering a helping hand to the smaller newspaper publishers. The price of news print is now almost 100 per cent higher than was true a few months since and if this price continues and publishers are forced to buy their print supply for the coming year on this basis, bankruptcy stares them in the face. There are hundreds—yes thousands—of newspaper owners who must go out of business if the present print prices continue. With the larger papers the problem is serious and will cut and idle tales can't move it. I have much confidence in Jones, who is godly fellow, and I would lend him seven bones without a kick or belch. My neighbors come to me and say, "Jones a low down sinner; he carried off a bale of hay that we had bought for dinner." But I believe that Jones is right, as honest as the dickens, and I would trust him any night around my coop of chickens. I fill my breaker to the brim with butter-milk, and toast him, for I will not go back on him because the neighbors roast him. My friends and comrades I select, without the town's assistance; and if some gents don't seem correct, I keep them at a distance. And if I find a friend O. K., I will not shake or flout him for anything the neighbors say, for yarns they tell about him.

DATES IN ILLINOIS HISTORY.

August 3, 1732—The French king and his ministers recommended to the governor of the province of Louisiana that he appoint certain young French boys to live among the various Indian tribes of the Mississippi Valley, in order that they might learn the Indian language and customs and act as interpreters and guides.

cut practically all profits for them. But with immense capital at their command they may be able to bridge over the time until lower prices prevail. The congressional probe into the price of paper has begun none too soon for the publishers, and hundreds of them are anxiously awaiting the result of the probe with the hope that lower price levels will be the result.

To Sue Municipal Voters' League

The right of a municipal voters' league to publish the fact that they do not recommend certain candidates for office is to be tested in St. Louis. Eugene Hale, a candidate for Republican nomination for circuit attorney, has decided to file suit for $2500 damages against the municipal voters' league. It has been the custom of the league to supplement their election activities by publication of their approval or disapproval of candidates and the report published was unfavorable to Mr. Hale. The case will resolve itself largely into the question as to whether or not the candidate was libeled by the published statement and also as to whether or not his chances at election were injured by the statement made.

The case will attract considerable attention because the growing tendency to organize such voters' leagues, especially in the larger cities. The leagues are usually looked upon as having been organized with the end in view of giving the people a chance to combat the professional politicians. There are instances on record, however, where the voters' league has become merely a part of the political machinery and has been used for the purpose of bolstering up the candidacy of some certain candidates not particularly excelling others in their fitness to serve.

SPRINGFIELD OFFICIALS SPAR WITH UTILITY COMPANY

Ordinance for Purchase of New Generator Passed Despite Objections—Election May Be Demanded by Company.

The trouble between the Springfield city commissioners and the Utility company there seem to be of a never ending kind. The development of the municipal light plant in the capital city has met with continued opposition from the company but thus far the commissioners have won out. It has recently been proposed to further develop the municipal plant by the purchase of an additional generator at a cost of between $20,000 and $25,000. The municipal plant in addition to furnishing current for street lighting and pumping, is selling current to a number of customers and this is the particular reason that every move for developing meets with opposition from the company.

As the new generator is said to be largely designed for reserve power, the Utility company made an offer to furnish power at any time that the municipal plant is out of commission at the same rate that it is costing the city to produce current.

At a meeting of the Springfield council Wednesday after a very spirited session the proposition of the Utility company was turned down and an ordinance was passed by unanimous vote authorizing the purchase of a new generator. It is now probable that the Utility company will insist upon a referendum election and thus put the question up to the people. At a previous time when the purchase of a generator now in use was proposed, the company took the necessary steps to enforce an election and the people authorized the purchase. It seems to be the history of a great many cities where municipal plants are operated that the differences between the city and the utility companies continue for a period of years and then come a day of final settlement and both plants continue to operate in a satisfactory way.

RECORD BREAKING CROWDS

AT ARENZVILLE BURGEO

Address by Hugh Green and Program of Athletic Events in the Afternoon—Auto Parade During Forenoon Hours.

One of the largest crowds ever seen in Arenzville assembled Wednesday for the A. H. T. A. picnic and burgeo. An auto parade in the forenoon began an all day program. The address of the day was given by Hugh Green of Jacksonville and after the address there was carried out a program of athletic events, in which the winners were as follows: Free for all race—Earl Elliott, first; John McCann, second.

Girls' race—Mrs. Al Dyer, first; Miss Mabel Bridgeman, second, Miss McKee, third.

Wheelbarrow race—John Hoagland, first; Homer Dahman, second. Potato race—Homer Dahman, first; John Hoagland, second.

Old fiddlers contest—William Lizenby, first; Jacob Buck, second; Edward Briggs, third.

John Zulauf of Arenzville was soup maker and almost seven hundred gallons of excellent burgeo were served to crowds at noon and during the early afternoon.

Mr. Green emphasized the place of law enforcement in a civilized community.

"In several ways the practical estimate of the real worth of an organization is determined by the purpose for which the organization is formed and the extent to which that purpose is carried into effect by those who constitute the membership. In consequence an organization like the A. H. T. A. formed, as is set out in the preamble of the constitution of the state order, for the better protection of its members against thieves, robbers, bandits, counterfeiters, incendiaries, tramps and all other criminals, is a worthy organization and the activity of its members in the apprehending of violators of the criminal law is a vital force in the particular community which claims them as a part of its citizenry. It is a force which detects and apprehends horse thieves and felons; and which either directly or indirectly compels strict obedience to law and the methodical maintenance of order."

In the evening music furnished the program, numbers being enjoyed from Mrs. Arthur Burrus vocal soloist, and selections by the quartet and a band concert.

It was generally regretted that Joseph Wait, the president of the association could not be present to call the gathering to order for the morning program. Mr. Wait became ill the night before while helping to make the soup for the picnic. A. B. Cundiff, an active member of the association, and holder of the office of financial secretary of the A. H. T. A. called the meeting to order. W. H. Deltrich of Beardstown was not present. Otherwise the program as had been arranged for was carried out most successfully. The auto parade marked the opening of events and the first prize of $7 was won by Albert Weeks with John Weeks and H. Carter winning the prizes of $5 and $3 respectively. The judges were H. J. Trinke, J. H. Nieman and Lewis Wiley. The tug of war, the "Antis" versus everybody was won by "the world." The baby show was then held, the prize for the prettiest baby boy being won by a son of Mrs. Edna Mallicoat and for the prettiest baby girl by a daughter of Mrs. Al Dyer. The judges were Mrs. Marshall Smith, Mrs. Glen Leftridge and Mrs. J. A. Anderson.

During the morning program an address of welcome was delivered by W. R. Dyer. Mrs. Arthur Burrus rendered a vocal solo, and Miss Slaughter gave an instrumental selection. A quartet furnished music and the Arenzville band furnished music all during the day.

CIRCULATING PETITIONS

Petitions are in circulation to present voters of the county the question of voting a 3 mill tax under the Glacklin law. This was one of the chief themes at the meeting of the directors of the Anti Tuberculosis society Tuesday evening. Another action of the directors was the appointment of Dr. H. C. Woltman as director of the free clinic. This appointment was made thru a competitive examination.

The report of Miss M. E. Coale, the nurse was submitted and read by the directors. It was decided by the directors that the number constituting a quorum should consist of seven instead of eleven. This was the result of the difficulty in getting eleven of the 21 members of the board together at a meeting which demands immediate attention.

BISHOP GRACE 75 YEARS OLD

Sacramento, Cal., Aug. 2.—Rt. Rev. Thomas Grace, bishop of Sacramento and one of the best known Catholic prelates on the Pacific coast, was the recipient of many congratulations today on the occasion of his seventy-fifth birthday anniversary. Bishop Grace was born and educated in Ireland, but his entire career as a churchman, covering a period of half a century, has been passed in this section. Previous to becoming bishop of Sacramento twenty years ago he had filled pastoral duties in various cities and towns of Nevada and California. Preparations are in progress for an appropriate

Elmer Smith and Walter Braner of the Grace Chapel neighborhood were in the city yesterday making preparations for the big fish fry to be held at Grace Chapel today.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary McPherson were held in the Baptist church Sunday at 2 P. M., conducted by Elder Thos. Marsh of Alton. A large number of relatives and friends were in attendance despite the intense heat of the day. The bearers were grandsons of the deceased, viz: Ray, Mayo, Austin, and Dorsey McPherson, and Verne and Henn Coolidge. The flower girls were the granddaughters. Burial was made in the family lot.

few minutes after the sun had set clouds began to roll up from the horizon.

Difficult to See Craft

At a mile away it was difficult to see either the crew, in their dark clothing or the vessel painted to match the color of the water. The Timmins carried her regular running lights and for the next ten miles the Deutschland could be located only by her convoy. Only one vessel, a tramp steamer passed them and she was far away. His attempts to signal the Timmins met with no response.

As the Cape Henry lightship and the Virginia and Maryland pilot boats came into view of the Deutschland and her convoy, they began to exchange blinker signals rapidly, the submersible's white light in the top of her periscope showing for the first time. When they were within two miles of the Cape Henry lighthouse the submarine had moved over well toward the shore and her outlines seldom could be seen.

Decreasing her speed, the Deutschland hugged the shore line as closely as was possible while the Timmins passed out of the capes a short distance to determine whether the allied warships were there to block the submarine's progress. In less than fifteen minutes of shortly before 9 o'clock she signalled the Deutschland that she had a clear path and the under sea freighter hastened down the channel and to sea.

On her way the submarine signalled briefly to the Timmins with her periscope light. The signalling completed, the light disappeared, and with it the Deutschland.

Start Under Ideal Conditions

The trip of the submarine and the conveying tug down Chesapeake Bay from Baltimore was started under ideal conditions. Not a cloud was in sight as the submersible increased her speed to 19 knots an hour soon after clearing Baltimore harbor. The Tug Timmins fell in behind immediately and by dark was 500 yards to the stern.

The tug apparently had great difficulty in keeping up with the Deutschland.

Dark flames spurted from her funnels showing that the stokers aboard were keeping all the steam possible in her boilers. Then the wind freshened and dark clouds began to roll in from the horizon. Soon the tug was pitching and rolling on the choppy sea, her running lights dipping up and down and the spray flying back from her bow.

The submarine ahead a brilliant light shining from a lamp attached to the top of her periscope and a green and red running light hanging below on the coning tower, plowed steadily thru the seas on an even keel.

Bay steamers passing up and down had their attention attracted to the submarine by the brilliancy of her lights, especially that on the periscope. They cast rays of their searchlights on the submarine, looking her over from stem to stern. As each of the vessels recognized the submarine three salute whistle blasts were blown. The submarine answered with her own whistle. Within the rays of the searchlights members of the crew could be seen plainly walking up and down the after-deck. In the conning tower was Captain Paul Koenig, master of the vessel. At his side stood the pilot.

Shortly before midnight Tuesday, seas became heavier. Under the glare of searchlights it was seen that waves were breaking over the bow of the vessel and washing the entire forward part. Occasionally the coning tower and the light on the periscope would be enveloped in a shower of salt spray.

At half past one this morning, while passing Solomon's Island the last of the vessels with searchlights was passed. By that time members of the crew except two had disappeared from the deck. One of these men was standing well forward, a lead-line for sounding in his hand and the other was at the stern. Captain Koenig still was in the coning tower, garbed in slickers.

Slows Down to Wait for Tug

In the broad channel against the seas that were running, the submarine had to increase the speed of her engines to maintain her pace. Occasionally the sharp staccato of her exhaust was blown across the water by the wind and a stream of sparks spurted from her stern with the grayish smoke from the powerful engines. The Timmins fell behind more than once and the submarine had to slow down a trifle to wait for her.

Those aboard the submarine and the tug apparently were worried by the presence of a newspaper yacht, a speedy craft, which kept up with the vessels without difficulty. The tug especially kept close watch on the yacht and was quick to take up a position between it and the submarine whenever the opportunity presented itself.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

Myron Leslie

By Ensley Moore.

Member Illinois State Historical Society.

As is well known, there are quite a number of persons around here whose given names are Myron Leslie. One was Myron L. Epler, another is the Rev. Myron L. Pontius.

When the question was raised, a while ago, where this name came from, no answer was given. But the writer asked Major George M. McConnell about it, as he is well posted as to early days here.

While the answer may not account for all the Myron Leslie prefixes, it will probably cover some, if not all of them.

One need not be told that, when the Internal Improvement scheme was whirling with cyclonic power (and a good deal of subsequent financial destruction) over the Garden State, Myron Leslie was one of the contractors with James Dunlap, Thos. T. January and Charles Collins, for this part of the Northern Cross (now Wabash) railroad.

Judge John Moses, in his History of Illinois, names these parties as contractors of the first division of the work from Meredosia to Jacksonville and of the second division, from Jacksonville to Springfield. The survey and location of the line was begun May 11, 1837, and the contract was let July 19, 1838. The road into Jacksonville was opened in 1839. Moses names the contractors above given, but he spells Leslie's first name Myron, instead of Myron. This does not alter the fact as to whom Leslie was. He was a man of ability, of prominence and enterprise, and of attractive personality, which do doubt led to his name being put upon many who came after him. Incidentally it may be said, that the contractors were to receive $8,340 per mile for their work.

Gen. Murray McConnell, in his speech at the laying of the cornerstone of the present Court House, May 12, 1868, gave a list of lawyers who have resided in this county from its organization to the year 1845. Among them was Myron Leslie.

Among the earliest and most prominent and successful settlers of Jacksonville was Dr. B. Gillett, who probably first occupied, if he did not build, the house on Grove street, at the end of Prospect street, now known as the Fitzsimmons place. Dr. Gillett's daughter Maria married Major Geo. M. McConnell, and it proved that the latter was just the person to know about Myron Leslie.

Mr. Leslie's daughter, Mrs. Mary Leslie Farrington, now of 548 Portland Ave., St. Paul, Minn., wrote to the "O. J." chronicler, June 5, 1916, in part as follows: "My cousin, Mrs. G. M. McConnell, sent me a postal, some months ago, written by you to inquire about Myron Leslie, who was my father. I am very much gratified that any one remembered him enough to be interested concerning the items of his life so many years after his decease, which occurred Aug. 1, 1854.

"I delayed answering your question in the hope of finding a very gratifying obituary, and resolutions of regret and sympathy, printed by the St. Louis bar, as the incidents therein mentioned were undoubtedly furnished by my mother, who died nearly twenty years ago, in St. Paul.

"I have not been able to find the articles, but will give you what items I can from memory and papers in my possession.

"My father was of Scotch origin, and the first of his name to come to this country was Sir James Leslie, who settled in Londonderry, N. H., in 1720. I have seen a map of that town or township showing the exact location of 62 acres of land he possessed there. The oldest son of Sir James was Daniel Leslie, born Jan. 28, 1724. He married Hannah Cochran, of Londonderry, and his first son was Alexander Leslie, born in Londonderry.

He afterward lived in Bradford, Vt., and died there at the age of 77 years, Oct. 2, 1821. Myron Leslie, my father, was born in Bradford, Vt., Sept. 22, 1806. He was a self-educated man, married Catherine Eliza Gillett when both were quite young, and lived a few years in Wells River, Vt., where he studied law and was admitted to the bar by Judge Levi Vilas, afterward of Madison, Wis. In the early '30s he and my mother moved to Springfield or Jacksonville, travelling all the way by private conveyance, in company with the late Judge Ebenezer Peck, of Chicago. In 1838, my father and mother moved to St. Louis, where he practiced law very successfully until his death. In the winter of 1848-9, he served in the Missouri legislature, and at one time was prosecuting attorney of the Criminal courts of Missouri. At different times he had associated with him, as law partners, Mr. Field (father of the poet Eugene Field) and the Barrett brothers, who came to St. Louis from Kentucky as young men, and were taken into partnership by my father; and were associated with him when he died.

He was noted for his brilliant attainments in literature and law, and it used to be said of him, 'If Myron Leslie met a man on the street with a poorer coat than his, he would stop and make him change,' which is doubtless an extreme illustration of his generosity.

There were twin girls born in Jacksonville, who lived only a few weeks, and one sister born in St. Louis, seven years younger than I, but who died in infancy. My birthday was Sept. 7, 1840. My mother was born March 15, 1811, in Hartford, Vt., and never married again.

Of various other business ventures of my father I have no accurate recollection. I know he was once interested in steamboats, and once lost all he had made, in consequence of going security for a friend who failed, but these things happened when I was too young to understand them.

This seems a very long letter, and I will only add that my mother was the youngest sister of Dr. Bezeleel Gillett, who lived so many years in Jacksonville, whom you doubtless knew. My grandfather, Alexander Leslie, was in the service of the Revolutionary War, under Gen. Geo. Reid, and it is a tradition in our family that he helped at the Boston Harbor Tea Party. I know that he drew a pension as long after as he lived.

This letter, from a lady of seventy-five years, was as fine in its penmanship and style as it is in its composition.

The gentlemen who have been named for Myron Leslie can apparently be proud of the distinguished selection their parents made.

The "O. J." column has always called attention to the splendid people who helped so much in laying the foundations of good things here. Myron Leslie could well have honored Jacksonville longer with his intelligence, enterprise and abilities.

The Gilletts
It may be well to add: "In 1867, Dr. Gillett sold the old home in Jacksonville to Oscar D. Fitzsimmons, who took possession in the fall of that year. Dr. and Mrs. Gillett left, removing to Chicago, where two sons then lived. In 1868, Mrs. Gillett died in Springfield, at the home of her daughter Margaret, Mrs. J. T. Warner. The Doctor then made his home with his son, Chas. W. Gillett, on a farm in southern Illinois, where he died in 1870.

Both were ardently active for many years in all the affairs of the town of Jacksonville. They aided largely in the founding and sustaining of the Episcopal church, and were close and valued supporters of Bishop Chase as long as he lived. Mrs. Gillett was especially an active member of the old Educational Society, which did so much to determine the line of development of the early town."

"ANTIGONE" PRESENTED SUCCESSFULLY AT CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y.

Complimentary Notice Given Presentation Which Was Directed By Prof. R. H. Tanner of This City.

The Chautauquan in a recent issue contains the following notice of the presentation there of "Antigone" under the direction of Prof. Rollin Tanner of Illinois College:

"In every respect, the presentation of the 'Antigone' of Sophocles in the Amphitheater on Saturday night was a decided success. Upon the shoulders of Dr. Rollin H. Tanner, of Illinois College, Jacksonville, Ill., was most of the responsibility for the auspicious introduction of the Greek drama into the dramatic life of Chautauqua, and to him must go a greater part of the credit. He was ably assisted by Mr. Barrett H. Clark, in coaching the speaking parts. Mr. Henry B. Vincent, who conducted the orchestra and trained the chorus, and Miss Gabrielle Sorenson, who was in charge of the dancing, under the direction of Miss Eliza Morris.

"The play was given a large and attentive hearing and the audience showed its appreciation by staying in its place and applauding long after the play had come to an end. The players and chorus were perfectly trained in their lines and threw themselves with abandon into the interpretation of the intensely interesting story.

"The principal parts were taken by Illinois College students who carried their work thru with a dramatic finish becoming professionals. Miss Rebecca Scheibel, in the title role, Henry Caldwell, as Creon, king of Thebes; Eugene Davis, in the important part of the messenger upon whom largely depends the unraveling of the story, and Miss Lois Daniels in the part of Eurydice, wife of Creon, deserve mention.

"Among the Chautauqua people having parts, the work of Mr. F. M. Webster, who as Priest of Dionysus, had the only Greek speaking part, in the invocation to the gods; and the solos of Miss Edna Kohnmann, Miss Yedda Spiro and Mrs. Zilla Wilson, and the excellent work of Mr. Chester Chamberlain as Haemon, were especially noteworthy.

"The stage and setting was effective as were the costumes and the other details entering into the production. The Mendelssohn musical setting was used with the play, the Chautauqua orchestra playing the score effectively."

ALFALFA SEED.

Turkestan Seed to Make up for Short Domestic Supply—Undesirable for Humid Sections.

During the fiscal years ended June 30, 1913, 1914, and 1915, approximately six million, five million, and seven million pounds, respectively, of alfalfa seed were imported, while during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1916, less than three and one-fourth million pounds were imported.

For several years Russian Turkestan has been the only country having a large surplus of seed available for international trade, but the supply of seed from this source has been practically shut off since the beginning of the European war, until the past winter, when shipments were begun by the way of the trans-Siberian railway, Vladivostok, and the Pacific Ocean. Of the seed imported into the United States since July 1, 1915, more than half has been from Russian Turkestan, and no doubt more of this seed will be brought in as transportation can be arranged.

The short domestic supply of last year, together with the decreased imports, have resulted in a marked increase in the price of seed over that of a year ago. The lack of alfalfa seed in this country this year must be made up by importation, and this will necessarily be largely Turkestan seed. It is known that Turkestan seed is not well adapted for general use in the United States and that it is particularly undesirable for use in the eastern humid sections. On the basis of its relative crop-producing capacity, the price of Turkestan seed should be lower than that of domestic seed, and purchasers should know when they are buying Turkestan seed. Conditions may often be such that only Turkestan seed can be obtained at the time and place where seed is wanted, but in every instance the purchaser should know whether he is getting Turkestan seed or not.

Turkestan seed can be distinguished from other alfalfa seed by the presence of certain characteristic weed seeds. These seeds are usually not numerous, but no importation of commercial Turkestan seed has been examined by the Seed Laboratory of the department in which they were not present. On account of these characteristic weed seeds not being plentiful, it is always necessary, in determining the origin of the seed, to examine a bulk of seed, and not depend on the examination of a small trade sample. Anyone wishing to have alfalfa seed examined, to determine its possible Turkestan origin, should send not less than one-half pound of seed to the Seed Laboratory, Bureau of Plant Industry, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

A discussion of the relative value of commercial Turkestan alfalfa seed will be found in Department Bulletin No. 138, "Commercial Turkestan Alfalfa Seed."

WHEAT ESTABLISHES NEW HIGH PRICE RECORD FOR 1916 CROP

Excited Buying Resulting from Advances that Blackrust Had Spread Rushes Market up 7% to 7% cents—Close is Wild at 6 to 6% Cents Net Higher.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—Excited buying that rushed the wheat market up 7% to 7% a bushel today resulted from advices that blackrust had spread widely in Canada including Saskatchewan and that damage from the pest was still on the increase south of the international line.

Prices reacted somewhat from the top figure of the session, but closed wild, 66¢ to 36¢ net higher with Sept. at $1.30% and Dec. at $1.34%.

Corn gained 3¢ and oats 3¢ to 1 to 1%.

In provisions the outcome was 1% to 2% decline. New high price records for the 1916 crop were established by the advance in wheat. Trading was the greatest in volume since the recent upturn in values began.

Stampedes to acquire ownership of wheat began as soon as the market.

Corn rose with wheat and as a result of predictions of dry hot weather. Decidedly bullish crop estimates were current.

Oats climbed with other grain. Provisions gave way owing to a downturn in quotation on hogs. Packers were said to be on the selling side.

HOG SUPPLIES PROVE MORE ABUNDANT THAN TRADE WANTED

Burned Pastures Make Cattle Offerings Over Plentiful—Choice Lambs in Active Demand but Other Grades Drag.

Chicago, Aug. 2.—Hog supplies today proved more abundant than the trade needed. Burned pastures made cattle offerings over plentiful. Choice lambs were in active demand but other grades dragged and so too did all kinds of sheep.

Bald-Heads This Will Grow Hair

"Vola-Vita," One of the Greatest Scientific Hair Discoveries Ever Known.

The most important discovery ever made on hair is Vola-Vita. It has been proven by actual results. It will prove it in your case, too. Vola-Vita has proven that hair falls ing, grayness and dandruff nearly always result when one or more of the principal elements of hair are missing. Hair has now been analyzed and its elements known. When these missing elements are restored, all hair and scalp troubles vanish and hair is compelled to grow luxuriantly. This is why Vola-Vita has done many remarkable things to hair and scalp. It positively restores the missing elements. That's why it forces hair to grow luxuriantly on heads shiny bald for years. It stops dandruff and itching positively. Hair stops falling because it increases wonderfully in vitality. Vola-Vita scientifically restores the vigor of the color glands. That's why it absolutely restores the original color to gray, faded or bleached hair, no matter what the original color was. It is not a dye. It contains no alcohol to dry up the hair secretions and ruin hair vigor. Use it and that'll prove it. Start now. Satisfaction guaranteed. Vola-Vita is sold at all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle or sent direct on receipt of price by Vola-Vita Mfg. Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Jacksonville by J. A. Obermeyer & Son, Lee P. Allcott, Armstrong's Drug Store, Coover & Shreve, J. A. Long, Gilbert's Pharmacy and C. L. DePew.

HERE'S CARRANZA AS ONE MAN SEES HIM.

The motives of Carranza are so often questioned and he is so frequently referred to as actuated solely by selfishness that any other picture of him is unusual. So considerable interest attaches to a character estimate of the man made by Herbert Quick, a well known writer and it is republished here because it is interesting and because of the desire to throw any possible light on the character of a man who is now so much in the public mind.

Remember, I am telling you not what I personally know, but what is said to me by a man of trained mind, honest purpose and great ability, who has spent long months on the ground, trying to find the real meaning of the Mexican muddle.

"What sort of man is Carranza?" is the important question.

Carranza, according to my informant, who has traveled with him, conferred with him and studied him at close and long range, is not the close, stubborn, pig-headed, greedy, selfish factotum described by his enemies, but an honest man with a purpose. Wherever he has seemed intractable, stubborn, or vain, it is in seeming only. It has been because he has been asked to do things which, under the circumstances, believing as he does, he could not do.

He is a landlord who has risked his life to give back their lands to a people.

He is a lawyer who is crushing or helping to crush the ancient body of laws by which he formerly practiced his profession.

He is a radical.

He is not a coward. Not only does he not want to escape from Mexico to save his life and a fortune, as many Mexican public men have done, but he cares very little for his own life as compared with the cause in which he is fighting.

He does not want much power in the office he holds, nor a strong central government in Mexico. He himself is not fond of money, and, therefore, could not be corrupted; but he is afraid that if the federal government of Mexico is made strong as it was in the times of Diaz, the man wielding such power will be corrupted as Diaz was, and the old slavery will return to Mexico. Therefore, he is patient with all sorts of irregularities in the state governments, patient with inefficiency, patient with graft, patient with insubordination.

The landlords and capitalists of Mexico have been driven out of Mexico, just as they were driven out of France and Switzerland prior to the redemption of those nations from slavery. They are in foreign lands, carrying on campaigns against the Mexican revolution just as the French emigres carried on their agitation against the French revolution.

Mexico is a country without an upper class. Carranza does not expect it to settle down to the new order of things without irregularities. But he believes that with the freed peons working their lands, with liberty gradually leading to comfort, the government will gradually improve.

He believes that if it is right economically, it will gradually get right legally.

Things came right in France and Switzerland because they were founded on freedom to work, an approach to freedom of land, and liberty.

He thinks they will come right in Mexico, if Mexico is given time. This may mean one, two or three generations—he does not know. But he is sure that if the people are given industrial freedom, they will finally get schools, roads, commerce, everything that is comprised in true progress.

CONCORD

The afternoon of Sunday, July 30th witnessed the breaking up of the drouth in the section 2-1-2 to 3 miles southwest of Concord. A nice local shower fell about 2:30 o'clock and was sufficient to thoroughly lay the dust for a few days at least. The roads running thru the village are still dusty as it only sprinkled in Concord. It certainly looked good to the writer to see the big drops come down and settle our dust.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Way of Ashland and Mr. and Mrs. John Chittick of Virginia were Sunday visitors at the home of Bert Way in South Concord, and attendants at the Christian church on Sunday morning. Mrs. Chittick is a sister of the Brothers Way.

Mrs. Kate Ratliff of Ashland has been with Artie Ham and other relatives. Also her granddaughter, Irene Horton, of Taylorville is here on a visit.

Mrs. Joe Whorten of White Hall has been here on a visit to her father, John A. Whorten, and the family of O. T. Hamm.

Miss Bonnie Smith has been visiting Miss Beulah Robinson at the home of Mrs. Ethelyn Plank.

The 5th number of the union church services was held at the Christian church Sunday evening.

Regardless of the heat and dust there was a large attendance to hear the sermon by Rev. A. Fairchild. The text, 1st. Corinthians, 1:18—"For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us who are saved it is the power of God."

Paul classified the human race into two classes, saved or lost. The thought was brought out that it is easy enough for we who are living to cross the line from one side to the other—while we live. When death comes, however, we are in one (or the other) of the two classes. The speaker urged his audience to get on the right side of the line and stay there, and not only that, but to bear with each other's shortcomings and endeavor to win back to the path of righteousness those who may stumble and fall. The sermon showed careful preparation and was full of human interest. Rev. W. P. Bowman read the scripture lesson and the opening prayer was by Minister L. M. Mullikin. At the close of the service the ordinance of baptism was administered to one candidate who had recently made the good confession. The next service will be in the M. F. church and the sermon by Rev. W. P. Bowman will conclude the series of union services unless the time should be extended. The services so far have been very harmonious and well attended, considering the weather. It is the opinion of the writer that these union service have served to emphasize the saying that in union there is strength. It is safe to say that all three pastors stand in higher esteem now than ever by the church attendants. It does seem to the writer that a continuation of the present arrangement would be welcomed by the lay members of the churches. Accessions to each and every church in the village may result from this united effort. I have taken notice to the fact that some people have attended these services who do not usually go to church.

Mary Rife is reported very sick. Miss Irene Valentine was on the sick list Sunday and Monday.

Miss Flora Fyson has been sick for a few days but is better.

R. E. Abernathy has an automobile. He says it is "superior" to any other car.

A committee of the Brookhouse families met recently and set the date for the Brookhouse picnic, August 24th.

The annual picnic of the Concord Christian Sunday school is set for Aug. 11th at Nichols Park.

Monday's Jacksonville visitors from Concord were J. E. Whorten and sister, Mrs. Plank, also J. A. Whorten and O. T. Hamm who drove up in his Empire car. Mr. Hamm thinks of going to Kentucky soon.

Class No. 3 of the Concord Sunday school held a very successful ice cream social on the church lawn Saturday evening and cleared about $25.

The morning sermon by the pastor at the Christian church was an extra good one. We give below the outline. The theme was "Lessons from the Transfiguration." Matthew 17:1-14. Jesus, James, Peter and John, were on the mount, and Jesus was transfigured before them. Moses appeared to them, talking to Jesus. The Savior wishes the disciples not to tell the vision to any man until the Son of man be risen from the dead. Moses represents the Law.

When Young Men and Old Soldiers Met in 1840

(By Isabel Jamison, for State Historical Society.)

Fourth Installment

Wednesday morning, June 3, the sun rose clear, but clouds soon began to gather, and for a time it was feared that rain would fall, dampening the clothing, if not the ardor, of the thousands encamped upon the rolling prairie. However, Chief Marshal Merryman and his aides rendezvoused at 8 a. m. at the office of the Old Soldier, in readiness to receive the early delegations. The threatened rain storm passed over, and at a very early hour, the Morgan, Greene, Cass, Tazewell, the "Hunters of Macoupin," and other county delegations arrived, and were escorted into the city.

At 2 p. m., the formal meeting began in the pavilion that had been erected on the camp-ground, and which held about 5,000 people. As soon as the speakers were called to the stand, the pavilion was packed to suffocation, and thousands lingered around the outside. J. Hogan, of Madison, S. Lisle Smith, of Chicago, E. D. Baker, of Sangamon, and Richard Yates, of Morgan, delivered addresses, after the routine business of organizing and electing officers had been disposed of.

Mr. Hardin, of Morgan, chairman of the committee on resolutions, reported the resolutions, which, among other things, expressed the object of the meeting as being an assertion of the inviolable rights of the free people; approved the nomination of William Henry Harrison, of Ohio, for president, and John Tyler, of Virginia, for vice president; condemned the lavish expenditure of public money as wholly unworthy of a chief magistrate; denounced a hard money currency as likely to impoverish the day laborer and enrich the officeholder; asserted that Van Buren had acted unwisely in creating a state debt in times of peace, and pointed out the inexpediency of maintaining a large standing army.

After the adoption of the resolutions, Messrs. Davenport, of Tazewell; Butler, of Bureau, Webster, of LaSalle; Wilkinson, of Morgan; and Judge Robins of Kentucky, addressed the crowd. Speaking was continued at intervals during the evening by Messrs. Davis, of Alton; Vandeventer, of Schuyler county; Bond, of Clinton, and Doyle, of Peoria. The camp of the Chicago delegation was considered the most attractive. On Wednesday evening, a party of ladies and gentlemen, composed mostly of the elite of Springfield, paid a visit to the camp, accompanied by the Springfield band. Cotillion parties were formed on the prairie and continued until the moon went down.

The meeting of the old soldiers took place on Thursday, June 4. A state organization was effected, John P. Henry being elected president. Resolutions were passed, pledging those present to work and vote for the soldier candidate.

On motion, the Revolutionary soldiers attending the meeting were invited to the platform. Nine responded and were introduced to the audience. One of these veterans was nearly one hundred years old. Two others who were in town were unable to attend the meeting. One of the old soldiers, past eighty, wore a hunting shirt which he had taken from an Indian near the battlefield of the Thames. One soldier proudly wore a sword which had been presented to him for gallant conduct during the time of General Wayne.

Thursday morning opened for the Whigs with a reception to the delegates by the Sangamon county delegation, after which, at 9:30, the different delegations assumed the positions assigned them at a signal of one gun. The Sangamon delegation formed on Sixth street, also the old soldiers, their right resting on Edwards street.

At 10 a. m., after a salute of twenty-six guns, the different detachments moved into a column of march and proceeded a mile and a quarter out onto the prairie south of town, and then countermarched until the head of the column arrived again on Sixth street just as the rear left it, making a procession two and one-half miles long, six abreast, in close marching order.

Elias represents Wisdom. Law fails to remove all sin. There is a law against swearing, yet that is America's great sin. Knowledge and wisdom have failed. Some of the greatest crooks have been educated men. The philosophy of all the world never made the world free from sin. The Voice from Heaven said: "This is My Beloved Son. Hear Him."

Archie Brookhouse went to Bluffs one day recently to the dentist and was accompanied by Loyce Plank. J. E. Whorten, Elmer Brookhouse, and Albert Brookhouse went to Jacksonville on Saturday.

Miss Bessie Robinson was the guest of her sister, Miss Beulah, near Pleasant View Sunday evening and Monday.

Master Loyce Plank went to Arzenville on Tuesday noon to visit and will until after the Burgoes.

Ed Whorten was a business visitor to Jacksonville on Tuesday.

Donald Henderson had business in Jacksonville Tuesday afternoon.

The order of the procession was as follows:

Salute party, with two field pieces.

E. H. Merryman, chief marshal. Assistant chief marshals.

Music. Committee on arrangements. State central committee.

Banner: State coat of arms; William Henry Harrison, on the reverse, "The Robe of the Civilian over the Armor of the Soldier."

A full length likeness of General Harrison, borne by two men. This was painted by Major Cabiniss, a portrait painter of Springfield, who made a trip to General Harrison's home at North Bend for the purpose.

Soldiers of the revolution, in a long canoe, drawn by four gray horses.

Dr. John F. Henry, president of the old soldiers' organization.

Vice presidents, consisting of soldiers of the Revolution, also those who served under Wayne, and with Harrison at the battle of Tippecanoe.

Soldiers of the late war (1812), six abreast, with banner and national flag.

Delegates from other states; Missouri, six abreast, with tri-colored flag, and state coat of arms, with the motto, "Union for the sake of Union;" Indiana delegation with badges bearing the inscription "The enemy is giving way; one more fire and victory is ours."

Iowa delegation, with banner inscribed, "Iowa cannot vote, but she can, and will, speak."

Carriages with ladies. President of the young men's convention, Hon. A. M. Jenkins.

Twenty six young men selected from the various delegations, serving as vice presidents.

The county delegations, in six detachments, with bands, floats and banners. The first detachment was led by Assistant Chief Marshal Prentiss, and headed by the Cook county delegation; four bay horses drew a wagon containing the musicians, dressed as sailors, in white, with red sashes.

The second detachment was led by Z. P. Cabiniss, Morgan county, heading the line, preceded by the Jacksonville band in a carriage drawn by six white horses. The delegation carried a banner inscribed "Morgan county will attend to her crops, and her rights, too!" Next to Sangamon, it was the largest delegation in line, numbering about 100. Twenty old soldiers riding in a canoe drawn by six gray horses, attracted much attention. Among other banners carried by the hundreds of Morgan county farmers was one bearing the legend: "The farmer of North Bend—from the cabin to the cabinet."

The third detachment was led by Thomas Hewitt, and headed by the Tazewell county delegation.

The fourth detachment, led by J. Shackelford, was headed by the Greene county men, decked with green bushes and carrying heads of green wheat. They bore a beautiful white silk flag presented by the ladies of Carrollton.

The fifth detachment was led by F. Webster and headed by the Scott county delegation.

The sixth detachment, acting as rear escort, led by J. Cornean, consisted of the Sangamon county delegation, carrying at its front a banner inscribed: "Old Sangamon—Harrison and Reform."

A large canoe, 33 feet long, containing two sailors in costume, followed, drawn by four horses. A pair of large deer horns was fastened to the bow. After this float came about 1,500 men carrying flags, banners and mottoes. Wolf creek, Upper and Lower Lick Creek, Richland, Fancy Creek, Mechanicsburg, and Island Grove were well represented. Rochester brought a steam engine drawn by four horses and a canoe float; a little band of shoemakers carried a banner inscribed: "To accomplish our ends, we will stake our awl." A log cabin followed, with a band playing inside, the float being drawn by ten yoke of oxen. (To be continued.)

The Ladies Aid of the Christian church will meet with Mrs. L. H. Plank on Thursday afternoon.

OBSERVES 14TH BIRTHDAY

Samuel Harris and Mr. and Mrs. John Dunn entertained a company of young folks Wednesday evening in honor of the fourteenth birthday of Mr. Harris' son LeFount Harris. The event was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dunn, 640 South Prairie street, and the occasion was much enjoyed by thirty-five guests. The evening was pleasantly spent with games and excellent refreshments were served.

NEW LUBRICANT RESISTS HEAT PREVENTS RAPID SEDIMENTATION

Ordinary oil breaks down under the terrific heat of an automobile engine. Within a few hours, black sediment is formed which partially clogs out the remaining liquid from the friction points where lubrication is most vital. Such under-supply of oil causes friction between the metal surfaces, intense heat, loss of power and expensive repairs.

The new lubricant that resists heat prevents rapid sedimentation, insures generous lubrication, and, except where mechanical faults exist, prevents carbon.

Relative Oil Destruction
The contents of the bottles shown, illustrate the relative durability of ordinary oil and of Vedol. The new lubricant that resists heat, Vedol deposits only a small fraction as much sediment as ordinary oil. There is a fundamental difference between ordinary oils and Vedol. Ordinary oils are unstable and therefore unserviceable because of non-heat-resisting chemical structure. Special processes of manufacture developed by this company and the use of Pennsylvania paraffine-base crude oil give Vedol, the new lubricant, its unusual chemical structure, and its remarkable heat-resisting ability.

Make this test
Clean out the crank case. Fill with kerosene. Run the motor about thirty seconds under its own power; then draw out all kerosene and refill with Vedol.
Now make a test run over a familiar road—up steep hills and along straight, level stretches. Keep a record of oil and gasoline mileage.

You will find that your motor has altogether new pickup and hill climbing ability. Vedol enables you to get the maximum mechanical efficiency from your car and to reduce your expenses. Get a five gallon can of Vedol, and make this convincing road test.

FINAL SUMMONS CAME TO MAYOR G. H. ESTABROOK

Aged War Veteran Commissioned Major When Alexander Smith Became Captain—Both Saw Notable Service With Seventh Illinois Infantry.

The Foster County Independent, published in Carrington, North Dakota, in a recent issue contains a notice of the death of Major George H. Estabrook, a pioneer citizen of that locality and a war veteran with a notable record. It was at the same time that Capt. Alexander Smith was commissioned captain that the deceased soldier was promoted to the rank of major. He served in the 7th Illinois Infantry and by his death Major Johnson of Springfield and Capt. Smith of this city are the only remaining officers of the 7th.

In connection with the facts of his life the Independent made special reference to the war record of Major Estabrook. In the article which appears below the "Johnnie" Smith mentioned was Capt. Alexander Smith. The article from the Independent was as follows:

"George H. Estabrook, one of Carrington's grand old men and pioneer citizens, died Monday at North Yakima, Wash., where he has been making his home the past two years with his son Albert. He has been in poor health most of the time since he went west but had been some better of late and was planning to return to Carrington within a few weeks. A brief wire was received here Tuesday announcing the death and stating that the body would be taken to Chippewa Falls, Wis., for burial beside the bodies of Mrs. Estabrook and son Lou.

"Mr. Estabrook was one of the earliest settlers of this region and one of the most prominent citizens. He was universally respected for many sterling qualities. Although nearly 86 years old, he was gifted to the end with an unusually bright mind and was a fluent and most interesting talker.

He was an attorney by profession and during his residence in Foster County held the offices of state's attorney and judge of probate. He was also at one time editor of the Independent. Mr. Estabrook was a charter member of the Masonic lodge in Carrington. Mr. Estabrook was born October 5, 1830, at Springfield, Ill. He was thus nearly 86 years old.

"In the Civil War, Mr. Estabrook went early, joining the 7th Illinois Infantry. He served his country faithfully and was promoted from ranks to be major of his regiment. The major had many interesting war stories. Three years ago the Independent asked him to tell us his best story. He thought awhile, briefly referred to several experiences, and then with great force told this one.

"Here is how General Sherman's army was saved and its famous march to the sea made possible:

"Johnnie Smith, a first lieutenant of Co. E, 7th Ill. Inf., one night had a dream. A vision appeared to him that unless some of Sherman's men had better guns, the army would be routed. The new Henri Martin rifle was just out but our men had none of them. Smith talked of nothing but his dream for days. He came to me about it. I was then a major. He wanted a fifteen day furlough to come north and get some of the guns.

"We took up the matter with the higher officers, even to Sherman himself. Then Smith went north to Ohio first, then to Hartford, Conn., where the guns were made. There was none at the factory but he found that some had been shipped to Chicago and had not been claimed. He went there and got 68 of them and returned to his regiment at Rome, Georgia.

"Our boys went wild over the new weapons. Sixteen shots could be made without reloading. We needed that gun for fighting guerilla style. We decided that we must have them. Our colonel thought out the plan. I was to go to Atlanta, Ill., on a vacation. I was to take a note signed by 33 of our officers and endeavor to get some of my old friends to give us the money needed.

"I got home at 5 p. m., went to the house, kissed my wife and children. Then I had Dave Kern get his bank directors together hurriedly and I told them our story. Dave gave me a draft for $3,000 and I left that night for Chicago. We got the guns and shipped them. Jim Atkins of Co. F was with me and he took the guns back to the regiment. I stopped again for a visit at home.

"Everything Sherman's army had was concentrated at Fort Altoona Pass, in the mountains. Only 900 men defended it. The guns had no more than been distributed to our men than we heard the rebel General French was to attack us. If we lost our supplies, all Sherman's army was lost. French came up with 7,000 men. He ordered us to surrender. Our commanding officers sent back word: 'I have just lost an ear and a cheek bone, but I can lick all hell yet.'

"French charged our works early in the morning. My regiment of 450 men fought in front of the fort. In five hours that morning French attacked us fourteen times. Sherman at Kenesaw mountain, heard the firing and saw the smoke. He wiggled that help was coming. When reinforcements arrived, French withdrew and we had won the day—thanks to Johnnie Smith's vision. We could not have held our position except for the Martin rifles.

"Of the 485 boys who went into the fight that morning with my regiment, at noon 220 were dead. I do not know how many the rebels lost. Years after, at a reunion, General Sherman told me that that charge at Altoona Pass was the bloodiest battle of the war, considering the number of men engaged.

"With his supplies saved to him, Sherman continued to wage an offensive campaign. In November he left on his march to the sea. Had not Johnnie Smith believed in his dream, I doubt if that most picturesque march would ever have been made."

STATE NEWS NOTES

Had Epileptic Fit and Drowned.—Hubert Hill, age 35, a coal miner, was drowned near Thayer, Macoupin county, Wednesday. Death occurred in an unusual way. The man was crossing a creek on a log when he suffered an epileptic attack and fell into the water. Normally he would have been able to swim but thus deprived on the control of his muscles he drowned almost instantly.

Wealthy Farmer Fleeced.—According to a statement recently made before the Sangamon county grand jury Fred Weber, a wealthy farmer of Paw Paw, Ill., was fleeced out of $6,000 some months ago. Faber was such easy money that he was ashamed to tell the story until some time had elapsed. Now there is very little chance of apprehending the confidence men. Faber by agreement met two men at a Springfield hotel to secure an option on a piece of land he thought of buying. As a result of this conference he was told of a man in Chicago who had the option on a tract of swamp land which could be drained readily and offered fine opportunity for money making. Two further conferences were held at a Chicago hotel and in some way Faber was induced to bring $6,000 in cash to a hotel room and during the "rough house" which followed the money disappeared and nobody knows its whereabouts.

Lincoln School Well Managed.—The charges of mismanagement against the Illinois state school for feeble minded at Lincoln have not been substantiated by the investigation made by a special committee. It seems that the committee after a full investigation of the institution determined that conditions are quite satisfactory.

Peoria to Have Recreation Farm.—An organization has been effected in Peoria for the purchase of a recreation farm. An option has been secured on some desirable farm property not far from the city and the development plan will proceed at once. Three camps will be established, one for girls, one for boys and one for adults. The farm is located near the river and a bathing beach will be one of the attractions. The officers of the association believe that they are starting a very practical philanthropy.

Plan Pilgrimage to Cartwright's Tomb.—When the ninety-third annual conference of the M. E. church is in session in Springfield next month a pilgrimage will be made to the grave of Rev. Peter Cartwright. The pioneer minister's tomb is in the country cemetery at Pleasant Plains just twelve miles from Springfield. According to the present plans several hundred ministers and laymen will make the pilgrimage to Pleasant Plains to place flowers upon Dr. Cartwright's grave and it is probable that a brief program of addresses will be carried out at that time.

Jas. Freer Again in Trouble.—James E. Freer, who has been conspicuous in criminal courts in Morgan and Sangamon counties is again in jail at Springfield. Freer has served a term or two at Chester. His criminal record began when he abducted a 17 year old girl in Springfield. His latest misdemeanor has been the passing of worthless checks. While there are many notable examples of the benefits resulting from the parole system, Freer's case cannot be listed in this class.

Seek Safer Railroad Crossings.—A general movement to secure safer railroad crossings in Springfield has been inaugurated by Commissioner Roy R. Reece. He has arranged for a conference with Springfield superintendents of the Chicago & Alton, Wabash and Illinois Central railroads and will insist that speed law violations cease and the crossings be adequately protected with gates. This special activity at this time is occasioned by the recent accident in which two persons lost their lives.

NO PICNIC AT LYNNVILLE.—There will be no picnic at Lynnville Thursday, August 3rd. Ladies Aid of M. E. church.

RAIN WEDNESDAY MORNING.—The rain which began Wednesday morning about 3:30 o'clock, did little more than cool the air in Jacksonville and vicinity, but was especially welcome in the south part of the county where enough rain fell to benefit the crops substantially. A good rainfall was reported at Manchester, as well as Murrayville. In Winchester there was a heavy shower.

Exceptionally attractive prices are quoted on Men's Straw and Panama Hats by FRANK BYRNE Hat Store.

FROM TERRE HAUTE.—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lindeman and daughter, Virginia, of Terre Haute, Ind., are visiting Mrs. Lindeman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Hoover, 340 East College street.

Only $1 Puts This New Hoosier
In Your Home on the Famous Hoosier Plan

Prices Will Advance When this Allotment Is Gone.

Before the coming prices take effect, you may choose between the new "Hoosier Wonder" pictured here or one of the other celebrated Hoosiers—"Hoosier Beauty," "Hoosier Special" or "Hoosier De Luxe."

Hinged Door
"Hoosier Wonder," Advertised in leading Magazines

The terms of this Hoosier Plan in our store are these:

1. $1 puts the cabinet you choose in your home.
2. $1 weekly quickly pays for it.
3. The low Cash Price fixed by the factory prevails strictly.
4. No interest. No extra fees.
5. This sale is conducted under the direct supervision of the Hoosier Company.

Only by grasping this opportunity at once can you be sure of getting your cabinet on the Hoosier Plan—and at the present low prices.

You realize of course that these terms could not be offered except on a very limited number of cabinets.

WHY PRICES MUST BE INCREASED.

50,000 cabinets—the entire spring output of the Hoosier factory—were sold in six weeks after they announced their new models. In some cities women have been unable for several months to get this most popular style.

Now the factory has made up 20,000 more for July and August sales. The next lot, after these are gone, must be sold at higher prices. This is due to the increased cost of all raw material entering into their manufacture.

OUR SALE MAY CLOSE ANY DAY

If all the women who need the Hoosier should come for it tomorrow, our full allotment of Hoosier Cabinets would be taken before night and the sale would close. This happened in some towns during a similar sale two years ago. Yet, if women delay, the sale may last a week or more. But which now is best for you—to take chances and miss this opportunity, or come to our store tomorrow so you can find out about this cabinet and decide before too late?

A. P. VASCONCELLOS BEGAN BUSINESS HERE FIFTY YEARS AGO

Half Century in Business on One Street is His Remarkable Record.

It is just fifty years ago that A. P. Vasconcellos opened a grocery store on East State street in the room now occupied by Shanahan & Shanahan. That was the third day of August, 1866, so that Mr. Vasconcellos today can look back to half a century spent in business on one street in this city. In fact, the men who have been in business continuously here for fifty years can be counted on the fingers of one hand.

After remaining in his first location for a period of seventeen years Mr. Vasconcellos moved two rooms west to the stand now occupied by the Armstrong Drug store. There he continued in business for nine years, when he moved to his present location at 310 East State street. The building was planned according to his needs and the location has proven very satisfactory for the twenty-four years it has been occupied. Mr. Vasconcellos said yesterday that he believed fifty years long enough for one man to stay in one business, especially on the same street, and that he is about ready to retire. Incidentally it can be mentioned that Mr. Vasconcellos is one of Jacksonville's most stable and respected citizens. Square dealing has been his watchword thru all this half century of business and he has the entire confidence of the whole community.

MANY DOWN STATE NEWS- PAPERS FAVOR LOWDEN.

"How Illinois Editors Look Upon Frank O. Lowden" is the title of an eight-page pamphlet just issued from the Lowden-For-Governor headquarters. It contains excerpts of two or three lines each from 75 papers, which number is less than one third of the number of Republican and independent newspapers that have declared for the colonel.

"That such a large number and (as to G. O. P. organs) majority proportion of the newspapers of Illinois, particularly the country press with intimate constituencies, should have declared for Colonel Lowden when yet the campaign was barely under way, has been both a surprise and delight to the Colonel and his campaign aids," the brief introduction states.

"It was proposed to gather in this little leaflet extracts from many, perhaps all, of the newspapers' utterances, but when a tabulation showed 233 such newspapers, representing virtually every county in the state, the limits of reasonable space intervened. What would have been needed was a book, not a pamphlet. Therefore there have been gathered herein, more or less chosen at random, brief expressions from some seventy-five newspapers whose editors have 'sized up' the Colonel and have printed what they found in the process.

"The circulation of the newspapers that have endorsed Colonel Lowden is more than 600,000—and still growing."
